

|                  |  |            |
|------------------|--|------------|
|                  | Executive summary .....  | 16         |
| Chapter 1 | Rights, equality and Education for All .....                          | 23  |
|                  | Rights to education: legal obligations versus political commitments .....    | 24         |
|                  | Extending the agenda .....   | 27         |
|                  | Time-bound targets .....   | 28         |
|                  | Impact of gender equality in education on other development objectives ..... | 28         |
|                  | Conclusion .....   | 31         |
| Chapter 2 | Towards EFA: assessing progress .....                                 | 33  |
|                  | Early childhood care and education .....                                     | 34         |
|                  | Universal primary education and the gender goals .....                       | 44         |
|                  | Secondary education and the gender goals .....                               | 66         |
|                  | Tertiary education and the gender goals .....                                | 76         |
|                  | Learning programmes for life skills and literacy .....                       | 84         |
|                  | Educational quality .....  | 96         |
|                  | Comparing the progress of countries towards EFA .....                        | 108        |
| Chapter 3 | Why are girls still held back? .....                                  | 115 |
|                  | The leap from parity to equality .....                                       | 116        |
|                  | Rights to education: what happens outside the school? .....                  | 117        |
|                  | Rights to education: children in special circumstances .....                 | 125        |
|                  | Rights to education: the supply of schooling .....                           | 135        |
|                  | Rights within education .....  | 143        |
|                  | Rights through education: achieving equality of outcomes .....               | 148        |
| Chapter 4 | Lessons from good practice .....                                      | 155 |
|                  | Historical lessons .....   | 156        |
|                  | Making public policy fit for girls .....                                     | 161        |
|                  | NGOs and education provision .....   | 184        |
|                  | Conclusions .....  | 189        |
| Chapter 5 | From targets to reform:national strategies in action .....       | 191 |
|                  | Patterns of performance – what drives progress? .....                        | 192        |
|                  | Importance of context .....  | 194        |
|                  | Commitments and time-bound targets .....                                     | 196        |
|                  | Evidence of national reform .....  | 201        |
|                  | Participation – is civil society involved? .....                             | 203        |
|                  | Decentralization: is it making a difference? .....                           | 209        |
|                  | Making primary education affordable .....                                    | 216        |
|                  | EFA in industrialized and transition countries .....                         | 222        |
| Chapter 6 | Meeting our international commitments .....                           | 231 |
|                  | Aid flows .....  | 233        |
|                  | International initiatives .....  | 247        |
|                  | Strengthening international co-ordination .....                              | 255        |
| Chapter 7 | Gendered strategies for EFA .....                                     | 265 |
|                  | Quantitative aspects of progress .....                                       | 266        |
|                  | Gender-aware strategy for education .....                                    | 266        |
|                  | National strategies for EFA .....  | 271        |
|                  | Meeting international commitments .....                                      | 272        |
|                  | Annexes   |            |
|                  | Appendices .....   | 278        |
|                  | Statistical annex .....  | 294        |
|                  | Glossary .....   | 384        |
|                  | References .....   | 388        |
|                  | Acronyms .....   | 412        |